

BSB42015 Certificate IV in Leadership and Management

National ID: BSB42015 | State ID: AVR3

About this course

This qualification will provide you with the practical skills and knowledge to undertake the role of first line of management in a wide range of organisational and industry contexts. You may have existing qualifications and technical skills in any given vocation or profession, yet require skills or recognition in supervisory functions. At this level frontline managers provide leadership and guidance to others and take responsibility for the effective functioning and performance of the team and its work outcomes. You will learn management strategies including how to implement an operational plan, show leadership in the workplace and promote team effectiveness.

This qualification is aimed at staff working within a team who are looking to take on more leadership roles and may be acting as 2IC to a manager. Although there is no entry level requirements for this qualification the assessment material would be difficult to complete if you are not currently working and /or have no experience working in a team environment.

This qualification can be enrolled at anytime and delivered flexibly. For more information contact Bunbury Campus 97807070 or 1800 621 445.

Study modes and durations differ depending on your local campus. Please check with your local campus for more information.
