

Develop Printmaking Skills

State ID: MAB28

About this course

Description

This course covers basic printmaking techniques and is designed for anyone that is keen to learn a variety of printmaking techniques such as:

- drypoint etching
- monoprinting
- chine colle

You will get to create and take home some exciting original prints.

All course materials are provided.

Certification

On successful completion of this course, students will receive a statement of attainment for the following nationally accredited units:

CUAPRI201 Develop Printmaking Skills

Overview