

South Regional TAFE

Aboriginal Art Competition

South Regional TAFE and Jobs & Skills WA invite existing and emerging local Aboriginal artists studying at TAFE to enter.

Winning artists receive up to $5000

and their artwork will be permanently displayed in the Jobs and Skills Centre in Albany or Bunbury, and proudly featured in promotional materials.

Pictured art by Errol Eades

Learn more about the competition at southregionaltafe.wa.edu.au/art

How to enter your artwork

Aboriginal students studying at South Regional TAFE can submit one original artwork based on the theme of what TAFE and your location means to you.

Submitted work can be art, artefacts or signage. See the website for details before creating your entry.

All works will be viewed and assessed by a panel of judges. Winning artists will be announced by 18 November 2022.

A total of $5000 will be awarded per centre (in Albany and Bunbury) for either one clear winner or shared between multiple talented winners.

For a chance to win, submit your artwork and entry form by 4pm on Friday,
11 November 2022

Designs drawn from art by Errol Eades

Visit southregionaltafe.wa.edu.au/art for competition details, and terms and conditions. For assistance, contact South Regional TAFE.

South Regional TAFE Albany Campus | 6371 3888 | albanyjsc@srtafe.wa.edu.au

South Regional TAFE Bunbury Campus | 6371 3000 | bunburyjsc@srtafe.wa.edu.au